Of
Coffin-Siris Syndrome Foundation

The undersigned, acting as an officer under the Washington Nonprofit Corporation Act (Revised Code of Washington 24.03) hereby adopts and executes the following Articles of Incorporation

Article I
Name
The name of this corporation is Coffin-Siris Syndrome Foundation

Article II
Duration
The period of duration of this corporation shall be perpetual.

Article III
Purposes
The purposes for which this corporation, a nonprofit charitable organization, is formed are:

1. To provide information and support for families, caregivers, relatives, educators, and medical professionals affected by or working with individuals with Coffin-Siris Syndrome (CSS) or related medical conditions.
2. To engage in any other lawful activity which may hereafter be authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that the purposes for which the corporation is formed shall at all times be consistent with Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as it now exists or as hereafter amended (the “Code”), including within such purposes the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

Article IV
Powers
This corporation shall have the power to do all lawful acts or things necessary, appropriate, or desirable to carry out and in furtherance of its purposes described in Article III which are consistent with Washington Nonprofit Corporation Act and Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.
Article V

Influence Legislation
No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall be devoted to attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements with respect to) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Article VI

Article IX

Limitations
This corporation shall have no capital stock and no part of the net earnings of this corporation shall inure in whole or in part to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any officer, director, or other individual having a personal or private interest in the activities of the corporation or to any person or organization other than an organization which is exempt from federal income taxation under sections 501(a) and 501(c)(3) of the Code, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, to make reimbursement for reasonable expenses incurred on its behalf and make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes stated in Article III.
Article X

Transactions Involving Directors

1. No contracts or other transactions between this corporation and any other corporation, and no act of this corporation shall in any way be affected or invalidated by the fact that any director of this corporation is peculiarly or otherwise interested in, or is a trustee, director, or officer of, such other corporation.

2. Any director, individually, or any firm of which any trustee may be a member, may be a party to, or may be peculiarly or otherwise interested in, any contracts or transactions of the corporation; provided, that the fact that such director or such firm is so interested shall be disclosed to or shall have been known by the Board of Directors or a majority thereof.

Article XI

Distribution upon Dissolution

Upon any dissolution of this corporation under provisions of the laws of the State of Washington for non-profit corporations, all of its assets remaining after payment of creditors shall be distributed to one or more organizations selected by the Board of Directors which are qualified as exempt from taxation under the provisions of Sections 501(a) and 501(c)(3) of the code, or any successor statutes, and which further the purposes set forth in Article II. In no event shall any of the corporation’s assets be distributed to the officers, directors, or members of the corporation.

Article XII

Private Foundation

If this corporation becomes a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509 of the Code, as long as its private foundation status continues, the following provisions shall apply in the management of its affairs:

1. Each year, the corporation shall distribute the income of the corporation, for the purposes specified in Article III, at such time and in amounts at least sufficient to avoid liability for the tax imposed by section 4942 of the Code;

2. The corporation shall not engage in any act of “self-dealing” (as defined in section 4941(d) of the Code) which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed Section 4941(a) of the Code;

3. The corporation shall not sell, exchange, distribute, or otherwise dispose of any “excess business holdings” (as defined by section 4945(c) of the Code) which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4943(a) of the Code;

4. The corporation shall not make any investments which would jeopardize the carrying out of any of its exempt purposes (within the meaning of Section 4944 of the Code) and which would, therefore, give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4945(a) of the Code;

5. The corporation shall not make any “taxable expenditures” (as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code) which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4945(a) of the Code.
Article XIII

Amendments
This corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change, or repeal any provisions contained in these Articles of Incorporation by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present at a meeting of the Board of Directors.

Article XIV

Members
The corporation shall have no members.
